

Fieldsports Club Syndicate Membership Extensions

Cover for Guests

The full insurance policy covering all Fieldsports Club members is extended in respect of Public Liability cover where the policyholder is a syndicate of 9 or more Fieldsports Club members.

Covers is extended to include guests of the syndicate providing the number of guests that shoot do not exceed one third of the number of guns shooting on that day.

It is a requirement that all guests are signed into the day book for any day, the book needs to record the details of all members shooting that day. Such guests shall be notified to the Syndicate Captain as soon as reasonably possible and the member introducing the guest is responsible for signing in their guests, recording all required details, for the notification of these to the Syndicate Captain and for their conduct on the day.

All day book records are to be kept by the syndicate for at least 7 years and are to be made available to the insurers on request.
